For failure to locate the whereabouts of its witnesses, petitioner deems it fit to withdraw the instant petition as indicated in its "Motion To Withdraw Petition" filed on September 13, 1991. Petitioner manifested its inability to present witnesses in support of its claim for reimbursement of P700,308.87 representing alleged business tax deficiency paid under protest for Cuison Hotel Corporation. Meanwhile, respondent interposed no objection to said motion.

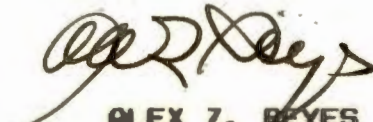

In view of petitioner's failure to prosecute and lack of interest to pursue its appeal, the Court resolves to GRANT petitioner's motion. Let the instant petition for review be withdrawn and the case is hereby considered closed and terminated.
