R E S O L U T I O N

Considering that this case which has been pending since April 13, 1973, had been previously dismissed by the Court for non-appearance and lack of interest on the part of petitioners to prosecute their appeal in our resolution of October 9, 1987; the subsequent dismissal thereof on the same grounds in our resolution of July 4, 1988; the failure of petitioners to pursue their appeal within the 30-day period granted them by the Court when the case was held in abeyance on September 13, 1988; and considering further the non-appearance again of petitioners' counsel at the scheduled hearing on November 3, 1988 despite proper notice thereof, evincing disrespect to the dignity of judicial proceedings, this Court upon motion of respondent in open court, resolves to dismiss the above-entitled case with prejudice for lack of interest on the part of petitioners to prosecute their appeal.

This dismissal is final.

SO ORDERED.
