R E S O L U T I O N

Considering that this case had been previously dismissed by the Court for lack of interest on the part of petitioner to prosecute its appeal in our resolution of May 29, 1985, although the dismissal was reconsidered by the Court in a resolution dated January 7, 1986 with a warning that similar omission or default on the part of petitioner will not be allowed (see p. 73, CTA rec.), repeated postponements of the hearing all at the request of counsel for petitioner, pendency of this case since July 24, 1982; and considering further the non-appearance of counsel for petitioner at the scheduled hearing on August 16, 1988 despite proper notice thereof, evincing disrespect to the dignity of judicial proceedings, this Court, upon motion of respondent in open court, resolves to dismiss the above-entitled case with prejudice for lack of interest on the part of petitioner to prosecute its appeal.

This dismissal is final.

SO ORDERED.

Quezon City, Metro Manila, September 8, 1988.
