R E S O L U T I O N

It appearing that despite the warning of this Court in its resolution of September 8, 1978 to the effect that petitioner's "failure to appear, either by counsel or through its representative, in the next hearing set for this case will be sufficient ground for this Court to dismiss the instant appeal", petitioner's counsel or representative, after proper service of notice, still failed to appear at the hearing set for this case on March 2, 1979, the Court resolves to grant respondent's oral motion to dismiss for failure of petitioner, either by counsel or through its representative, to appear and prosecute its appeal.

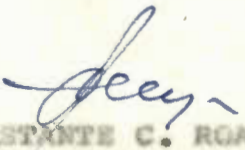

ACCORDINGLY, let this case be dismissed and considered closed and terminated.
