

REVENUE MEMORANDUM ORDER NO. 29-99 issued April 8, 1999 defines the Bureau's publication goals and editorial policies and guidelines, as well as prescribes the procedures for the preparation and publication of the BIR Monitor and the Philippine Revenue Journal (PRJ). Specifically, BIR publications will be prepared in order to: a) inform the Bureau's internal (revenue officials and personnel) and external stakeholders about the latest tax laws, revenue issuances and BIR rulings; b) promote awareness of the Bureau's current priorities and thrusts; c) generate interest and support for the Bureau's programs and projects; and d) update revenue officials and personnel about people, events and places (offices) in the Bureau. Articles prepared by the Revenue Data Center (RDC)/National/Regional Office correspondents and those contributed by revenue officials/personnel, for publication in the PRJ and the BIR Monitor, will have to be validated, approved and endorsed by the respective RDC Head/Assistant Commissioner/Regional Director.
