ADVISORY No. 13
Series of 2024

Crisis Alert Level 2 in New Caledonia

The Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) announced on 30 May 2024 that it has placed New Caledonia under Crisis Alert Level 2 (Restriction Phase) in view of the announcement of a state of emergency in the territory. Under Crisis Alert Level 2, only returning Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) with existing employment contracts are allowed to go back in New Caledonia to resume their employments. The processing and deployment of newly-hired OFWs bound for New Caledonia is temporarily suspended.

The DFA also advised Filipinos living in New Caledonia to remain vigilant, to avoid public places, and to restrict non-essential movement. Filipinos are also advised to monitor and follow guidelines set by local authorities.

Filipinos are encouraged to contact the Philippine Consulate General in Sydney and the Philippine Embassy in Canberra for concerns:
