Section 6, Rule 7 of the Revised Rules of Court provides that only witnesses whose judicial affidavits are attached to the pleading shall be presented by the parties during trial, to wit:

SEC. 6. Contents. — Every pleading stating a party's claims or defenses shall, in addition to those mandated by Section 2, Rule 7, state the following:

(a) Names of witnesses who will be presented to prove a party's claim or defense;

(b) Summary of the witnesses' intended testimonies, provided that the judicial affidavits of said witnesses shall be attached to the pleading and form an integral part thereof. Only witnesses whose judicial affidavits are attached to the pleading shall be presented by the parties during trial. Except if a party presents meritorious reasons as basis for the admission of additional witnesses, no other witness or affidavit shall be heard or admitted by the court; and...

Further, Section 3, Rule 17 of the Revised Rules of Civil Procedure states that if, for no justifiable cause, petitioner fails to comply with the Rules or any order of the court, the complaint may be dismissed upon the Court's own motion, to wit:

SEC. 3. Dismissal due to fault of plaintiff. — If, for no justifiable cause, the plaintiff fails to appear on the date of the presentation of his or her evidence in chief on the complaint, or to prosecute his or her action for an unreasonable length of time, or to comply with these Rules or any order of the court, the complaint may be dismissed upon motion of the defendant or upon the court's own motion, without prejudice to the right of the defendant to prosecute his or her counterclaim in the same or in a separate action. This dismissal shall have the effect of an adjudication upon the merits, unless otherwise declared by the court.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, petitioner's Petition for Review is DISMISSED for its failure to comply with the Rules and order of this Court.
