Total Excess/Unutilized VAT Credits for the 1 st to 4 th Quarters of CY 2004 (10% of Total Purchases)							22,764,594.40

Petitioner filed its administrative claims for refund of input VAT for the 1st quarter in the amount of P8,411,252.63 on April 12, 2005, and for the 2nd, 3rd, 4th quarters in the aggregate amount of P14,353,341.77 on December 14, 2005.

Due to respondent's inaction, petitioner filed the present Petition for Review on December 29, 2005, praying for the refund or issuance of tax credit certificate in the total amount of P22,764,594.40, allegedly representing unutilized input VAT from petitioner's domestic purchases, services rendered by non-residents, and importation of goods for the four quarters of taxable year 2004.

Summons was issued on January 16, 2006, which was received by respondent on January 17, 2006.

In h[er] Answer filed on March 14, 2006, respondent averred the following Special and Affirmative Defenses:

‘5. He reiterates and pleads the preceding paragraphs of this answer as part of his Special and Affirmative Defenses.

6. Petitioner's alleged claim for refund is subject to administrative investigation/examination by respondent;

7. Taxes remitted to the BIR are presumed to have been made in the regular course of business and in accordance with the provision of law;

8. To support its claim for refund, it is imperative for petitioner to prove the following, viz.:

a. The registration requirements of a value-added taxpayer in compliance with the pertinent provision of the Tax Code of 1997, as amended, and its implementing revenue regulations;

b. The invoicing and accounting requirements for VAT-registered persons, as well as the filing and payment of VAT in compliance with the provisions of Sections 113 and 114 of the Tax Code of 1997, as amended;

c. Proof of compliance with the submission of complete documents in support of the administrative claim for refund pursuant to Section 112 (D) of the Tax Code of 1997, as amended, otherwise there would be no sufficient compliance with the filing of administrative claim for refund which is a condition sine qua non prior to the filing of judicial claim in accordance with the provision of Section 229 of the Tax Code, as amended;

d. That the input taxes of P22,764,594.40 allegedly representing unutilized input VAT from its domestic purchases of goods and services, services rendered by non-residents and importation of goods for the calendar year 2004 were:

d.i paid by the petitioner;

d.ii attributable to its zero-rated or effectively zero-rated sales;
and

d.iii such have not been applied against any output tax;

e. That petitioner's claim for tax credit or refund of the unutilized input tax (VAT) was filed within two (2) years after the close of the taxable quarter when the sales were made in accordance with Section 112 (A) of the Tax Code of 1997, as amended;

f. That petitioner's domestic purchases of goods and services, services rendered by non-residents and importation of goods were made in the course of its trade or business, properly supported by VAT invoices and/or official receipts and other documents, such as subsidiary purchase Journal, showing that it actually paid VAT in accordance with Sections 110 (A) (2) and 113 of the Tax Code of 1997, as amended;

g. That petitioner has complied with the governing rules and regulations with reference to recovery of tax erroneously or illegally collected as explicitly found in Section 112 (A) and 229 of the Tax Code, as amended.

9. Excess input tax over output tax should be carried over to the succeeding quarter/s. However, input tax attributed to capital goods purchases or to zero-rated sales may be opted to be refunded or credited against other internal revenue taxes. This is provided under Section 110 (B) of the Tax Code of 1997, as amended, which states in part:

' . . . If the input tax exceeds the output tax, the excess shall be carried over to the succeeding quarter or quarters. Any input tax attributable to the purchase of capital goods or to zero-rated sales by a VAT-registered person may at his option be refunded or credited against other internal revenue taxes, subject to the provisions of Section 112. . . .'
(underscoring supplied)

Likewise, Section 110 (C) of the Tax Code of 1997, as amended, provides:

'Determination of Creditable Input Tax — The sum of the excess input tax carried over from the preceding month or quarter and the input tax creditable to a VAT-registered person during the taxable month or quarter shall be reduced by the amount of claim for refund or tax credit for value-

added tax and other adjustments, . . .' (underscoring supplied)

10. Furthermore, in an action for refund the burden of proof is on the taxpayer to establish its right to refund and failure to sustain the burden is fatal to the claim for refund/credit. This is so because exemptions from taxation are highly disfavored in law and he who claims exemption must be able to justify his claim by the clearest grant of organic or statutory law. An exemption from common burden cannot be permitted to exist upon vague implications. (Asiatic Petroleum Co. [P.I.] v. Llanes, 49 Phil. 466 cited in Collector of Internal Revenue v. Manila Jockey Club, Inc., 98 Phil. 670);

11. Claims for refund are construed strictly against the claimant for the same partake the nature of exemption from taxation.

Petitioner filed its Pre-Trial Brief on April 3, 2006; while respondent filed h[er] Pre-Trial Brief (For the Respondent) on April 4, 2006. On April 7, 2006, the parties were ordered to submit their Joint Stipulation of Facts and Issues within fifteen days thereafter. On April 26, 2006, the parties filed their Joint Stipulation of Facts and Issues, which was approved in a Resolution dated April 28, 2006.

Pursuant to Section 5 (b) of Rule 6 of the Revised Rules of Court of Tax Appeals, respondent transmitted the BIR Records to this Court on July 6, 2006.

Petitioner filed a Motion for the Commissioning of an Independent Certified Public Accountant on October 30, 2006, and a Submission (Re: Motion for the Commissioning of an Independent Certified Public Accountant) on November 6, 2006; which was granted in a Resolution dated December 5, 2006. Accordingly, Mr. Jerome Antonio B. Constantino was commissioned as the Independent Certified Public Accountant (CPA), pursuant to Rules 12 and 13 of the Revised Rules of the Court of Tax Appeals. On December 18, 2006, the Court-commissioned Independent CPA submitted his Report.

After petitioner's presentation of evidence, it filed its Formal Offer of Evidence on November 12, 2007, submitting Exhibits 'A' to 'NN,' inclusive of submarkings. In a Resolution dated January 22, 2008, the afore-mentioned exhibits were admitted, except for Exhibit 'I' for failure of petitioner's witness to identify the same in Court.

On June 17, 2008, respondent's counsel manifested that he is waiving respondent's right to present evidence since there was no report of investigation. In a Resolution dated June 23, 2008, the parties were ordered to file their respective Memorandum within thirty days from June 17, 2008.

In a Resolution dated August 26, 2008, the case was submitted for decision, taking into consideration the parties' Memoranda, both filed on August 15, 2008.⁶

On August 26, 2009, the Court in Division promulgated its Decision⁷ which ruled that petitioner is entitled to the refund or issuance of tax credit certificate in the reduced amount of Php19,264,022.79, representing unutilized input VAT for the four quarters of taxable year 2004. The dispositive portion of the decision states:

"WHEREFORE, petitioner's claim for refund or issuance of tax credit certificate is hereby PARTIALLY GRANTED. Accordingly, respondent is hereby ORDERED TO REFUND OR ISSUE A TAX CREDIT CERTIFICATE in favor of petitioner in the reduced amount of Php19,264,022.79, representing its excess/unutilized input VAT for the period covering the four quarters of taxable year 2004.

SO ORDERED."

On September 22, 2009, petitioner filed its "Motion for Partial Reconsideration (Re: Decision Dated 26 August 2009)⁸" praying that the amount Php3,500,571.61 be reconsidered as it complied with the substantiation requirements prescribed in Section 110(A), in relation to Section 113(A) of the NIRC, as implemented by Sections 4.104-5 and 4.108-1, RR No. 7-95. On the other hand, respondent filed her "Motion for Reconsideration (Re: Decision promulgated 26 August 2009)⁹ on September 23, 2009, praying that the Petition for Review be denied for being filed beyond the prescriptive period provided under Section 112 of the 1997 National Internal Revenue Code, as amended ("NIRC").

On October 12, 2009, respondent filed her "Opposition (Re: Petitioner's Motion for Reconsideration)¹⁰" reiterating her position that petitioner's Petition for Review was filed out of time as provided under Section 112 of the NIRC.

On October 21, 2009, petitioner filed its "Comment/Opposition (Re: Respondent's Motion for Reconsideration dated 23 September 2009)¹¹" praying that the refund or issuance of a Tax Credit Certificate be affirmed.

On October 30, 2009, petitioner again filed a "Reply (Re: Respondent's Opposition to Petitioner's Motion for Partial Reconsideration dated 12 October 2009)"¹² praying that an Amended Decision be promulgated granting petitioner's claim in full by taking into account the amount of Php3,500,571.61 as it was properly supported by the required evidence under Section 110(A) in relation to Section 113(A) of the NIRC, and as implemented by Sections 4.104-5 and 4.108-1, RR No. 7-95.

After a reconsideration of the arguments raised by both the parties, the Court promulgated an Amended Decision dated March 2, 2010,¹³ which partially granted petitioner's claim. The dispositive portion of the Amended Decision reads:

WHEREFORE, petitioner's Motion for Partial Reconsideration is hereby PARTIALLY GRANTED. The Decision dated August 26, 2009 is hereby MODIFIED. On the other hand, respondent's Motion for Reconsideration is hereby DENIED for lack of merit.

Accordingly, respondent is hereby ORDERED to REFUND or ISSUE a TAX CREDIT CERTIFICATE in favor of petitioner in the increased amount of Php19,302,698.48, representing its excess/unutilized input VAT for the period covering the four quarters of taxable year 2004.

SO ORDERED.¹⁴

Both parties being unsatisfied with the Decision filed their respective Petitions for Review with the Court En Banc. On April 12, 2010, petitioner filed its "Petition for Review" captioned as CE Luzon Geothermal Power Company, Inc. vs. Commissioner of Internal Revenue, docketed as CTA E.B. No. 606 (CTA Case No. 7393).¹⁵ While respondent filed her "Petition for Review," on April 23, 2010 which was captioned as Commissioner of Internal Revenue vs. CE Luzon Geothermal Power Company, Inc., docketed as CTA E.B. No. 604 (CTA Case No. 7393).¹⁶

Since both parties respective Petitions for Review were an appeal from the Decision of the First Division dated August 26, 2009, the Court En Banc on April 28, 2010, consolidated both cases and docketed the consolidated case as CTA EB Nos. 604 and 606, pursuant to Section 1, Rule 31 of the Revised Rules of Court.¹⁷

On May 20, 2010, the Court En Banc ordered both parties to file their respective comments to the consolidated Petitions for Review.¹⁸

On June 15, 2010, petitioner filed its "Comment (Re: Commissioner of Internal Revenue's Petition for Review dated 24 April 2010 in CTA EB No. 604),¹⁹" without respondent filing her comment.²⁰

After considering the "Consolidated Memorandum" filed by petitioner on August 25, 2010 by registered mail, without any memorandum filed by respondent despite notice, the case was submitted for decision.²¹

On June 27, 2011, the Court En Banc rendered a Decision, and ruled that petitioner belatedly filed its Petition for Review for its claim for the 1st quarter of the taxable year 2004, while for the 2nd, 3rd and 4th quarters of taxable year 2004's claim, the Court En Banc found that petitioner filed its claim prematurely.²² The dispositive portion of the Decision states:

WHEREFORE, premises considered, the Petition for Review docketed as CTA EB No. 604 is GRANTED while the Petition for Review docketed as CTA EB No. 606 is DENIED. Accordingly, the Decision of the former First Division of this Court in CTA Case No. 7393, dated August 26, 2009 and its Amended Decision, dated March 2, 2010, are hereby REVERSED and SET ASIDE. CTA Case No. 7393 is hereby DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction. No pronouncement as to costs.

SO ORDERED.

Unsatisfied with the Decision of the Court En Banc, petitioner filed a "Motion for Reconsideration," and alleges that the case of *Commissioner of Internal Revenue vs. Aichi Forging Company of Asia, Inc.*²³ ("Aichi Case") should be applied prospectively and that Section 229 of the NIRC as well as the case of *Atlas Consolidated Mining and Development Corporation vs. Commissioner of Internal Revenue*²⁴ ("Atlas Case") are the applicable law and jurisprudence.

However, the Court En Banc denied petitioner's "Motion for Reconsideration" by applying the Aichi case and ruled that the 120-day period provided in Section 112 of the NIRC is crucial in filing its appeal, and that the "Atlas case is inapplicable in the instant case on the ground that the factual milieu is clearly different,"²⁵ the dispositive portion of the Resolution states:

"WHEREFORE, premises considered, petitioner's 'Motion for Reconsideration' is hereby DENIED for lack of merit.

SO ORDERED."²⁶

On January 20, 2012, petitioner filed a Petition for Review²⁷ before the Supreme Court in Division, entitled CE Luzon Geothermal Power Company, Inc. vs. Commissioner of Internal Revenue, docketed as G.R. No. 199572-73 (CTA EB Case Nos. 604 and 606)(CTA Case No. 7393), praying for the reversal of the CTA En Banc's Decision dated June 7, 2011 and Resolution dated December 1, 2011, and the reinstatement of the Amended Decision dated March 2, 2010 which reimbursed petitioner the increased amount of Php19,302,698.48 representing petitioner's unutilized input VAT for the year 2004.²⁸

On April 25, 2012, the Supreme Court issued a Resolution²⁹ denying the "Petition for Review" for petitioner's "failure to sufficiently show that the CTA En Banc committed any reversible error in the challenged Decision dated June 27, 2011 and Resolution dated December 1, 2011 that warrants the Supreme Court's exercise of its discretionary appellate jurisdiction."³⁰

On July 12, 2012, petitioner filed a "Motion for Reconsideration"³¹ of the Supreme Court in Division's Resolution dated April 25, 2012, which prays: that the said Resolution be reconsidered; that the "Petition for Review" dated January 20, 2012 be given due course; that respondent be ordered to file a comment; that the CTA En Banc's Decision dated June 27, 2011 and Resolution dated December 1, 2011 be reversed and set aside; and that a refund or tax credit certificate in its favor representing its unutilized input VAT for the taxable year 2004 in the increased amount of Php19,302,698.48 be granted.

On August 30, 2012, petitioner filed an "Urgent Motion to Refer Motion for Reconsideration dated July 12, 2012 to the Supreme Court En Banc,"³² which prays for the transfer of the "Motion for Reconsideration" dated July 12, 2012 filed before the Supreme Court in Division to the Supreme Court En Banc.

Momentarily, on December 10, 2012, respondent filed a "Comment (On Appellant's Motion for Reconsideration Dated July 12, 2012),³³" to the Supreme Court Division, which prays for the affirmation of the CTA En Banc's Decision dated June 27, 2011 and Resolution dated December 1, 2011.

On July 12, 2013, petitioner filed a "Motion for Leave to File and to Admit Supplement to Motion for Reconsideration Dated July 12, 2012,³⁴" and alleges that the case of *Commissioner of Internal Revenue vs. San Roque Corporation*³⁵ has clarified the Supreme Court's Decision of the Aichi case and ruled that the Aichi case will not apply to taxpayers relying on BIR Ruling DA-489-03, thus, the judicial claim it filed with the Court of Tax Appeals when it relied with BIR Ruling DA-489-3 was validly filed. Therefore, it prays that it be granted leave to file its "Supplemental Motion for Reconsideration Dated July 12, 2012" and that the attached "Supplement to Motion for Reconsideration" be admitted.

After considering the "Supplement to Motion for Reconsideration Dated July 12, 2012," the Supreme Court in Division issued a Resolution dated June 18, 2014, partially granting the "Motion for Reconsideration." The essential fallo of which reads as follows:

"in the light of the Supreme Court's Ruling in the case of Commissioner of Internal Revenue vs. San Roque Power Corporation which declared that 'strict compliance with the 120+30 day periods is necessary for [a judicial claim of refund or credit under the VAT System] to prosper,xxx, except for the period from the issuance of BIR Ruling No. DA-489-03 on 10 December 2003 to 6 October 2010 when the Aichi doctrine was adopted, which again reinstated the 120+30 day periods as mandatory and jurisdictional.

Applying our ruling in San Roque, we find that, although prematurely filed, petitioner's judicial claims for refund for the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th quarters of 2004 must be allowed pursuant to BIR Ruling No. DA-489-03, which provides that 'taxpayer-claimant need not wait for the lapse of the 120-day period before it could seek judicial relief with the CTA by way of Petition for Review. However, petitioner's judicial claim for refund for the 1st quarter of 2004 must be denied since it was filed beyond the 120+30 day periods provided for in Section 112(D) of the 1997 NIRC."

The dispositive portion of the Resolution³⁶ states:

"WHEREFORE, CE Luzon Geothermal Company, Inc.'s Motion for Reconsideration is hereby PARTIALLY GRANTED. The Court's Resolution dated April 25, 2012 is hereby REVERSED and SET ASIDE. Let the case be REMANDED to the Court of Tax Appeals for the proper determination of CE Luzon Geothermal Power Company, Inc.'s tax credit/refund.

SO ORDERED."³⁷

Aggrieved, on August 11, 2014, petitioner filed a "Motion for Reconsideration of the Resolution dated June 18, 2014" but was denied with finality in a Resolution dated September 10, 2014.

On November 24, 2014, the case has become final and executory and was recorded in the Book of Entries of Judgment.³⁸

Hence, the remanded case for the proper determination of petitioner's refundable amount representing its excess/unutilized input VAT for 2nd, 3rd and 4th quarters of 2004.

In order to be entitled for refund of its excess/unutilized input VAT for 2nd, 3rd, and 4th quarters of 2004, petitioner must show that it was able to substantiate its claim pursuant to Section 4.104-5 of Revenue Regulations No. 7-95, to wit:
