NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

OFFICIAL STATEMENT

Fraud Alert: GlobalX and Its Shares Are Not for Sale to the Public

GlobalX Digital Corporation (the "Corporation"), owner and operator of the PAGCOR-accredited online gaming site Karera.live, has received alarming reports of individuals falsely claiming that the corporation or its shares are for sale. These statements are completely false, unauthorized, and made without the knowledge or consent of the corporation or its shareholders.

We categorically state that GlobalX Digital Corporation is not for sale to the public, and no shares of the corporation are being offered for sale to any individual, group, or entity. The corporation has not authorized any person or entity to solicit buyers, represent ownership, or act on its behalf in any transaction involving the sale of the corporation or any of its equity.

The public is hereby advised to be vigilant and to refrain from engaging with any individual or group purporting to represent or offer shares in GlobalX. These acts may be part of a fraudulent scheme, and we are currently taking steps to identify and verify those responsible.

The corporation reserves the right to pursue legal action against any individual or entity found to be misrepresenting its status or offering shares without authority.

This statement is being issued to clarify the corporation's position and to protect the public and all stakeholders from misleading or fraudulent representations.

For verification or to report any related incident, please contact GlobalX Digital Corporation exclusively through: legal@globalx.com.ph.

This is issued for public guidance. Your attention is appreciated.
